MOTION FOR REVIEW BY COURT OF PROPOSED DISCOVERY ORDER, PROTECTIVE ORDER, AND DOCKET CONTROL ORDER

COMES NOW, William Rogers, Plaintiff, and motions this Court for a review and inspection on behalf of Plaintiff by Judge John D. Love of the proposed Docket Control Order, Discovery Order and Protective Order filed with the Court as Exhibits "A", "B" and "C" attached to Notice of Compliance with Court Order on January 14, 2016 by opposing council, and would show the Court as follows:

1. Opposing council Darren Coleman is not a neutral party.
2. Opposing council is obligated to gain an advantage for his clients over Plaintiff when possible.
3. Opposing council is not obligated to ensure Plaintiff receives even a neutral agreement(s).
4. During the conference with Coleman, concerns arose to make Plaintiff question if he was getting a fair agreement and an agreement that he would not later realize was to his disadvantage.
5. Additional concerns arose as to securing the maximum number of requests for admission and interrogatories permissible by law so as to be able to adequately deal with the large number of Defendants in this case.

6. As a pro se, Plaintiff has limited knowledge and experience with these types of proposed orders.

Wherefore, Plaintiff hereby motions the Court for a review of the proposed orders to ensure that Plaintiff is not disadvantaged by the disparity between his expertise, or lack thereof, and the obvious advantages of his experienced opposing council.

Respectfully Submitted,

William Rogers
